

Kevin Boyd

Address: 1508 Tasha Court
City: Hanmer
State: Ontario
Phone: (705) 222-8848
E-mail: ktboyd@vianet.ca

Objective

Seeking position requiring excellent communication skills in a training setting. Position should require a variety of tasks including assessing requirements, developing, delivering and assessing outcomes of the training needs of your business in daily operations and legislated requirements under the Occupational Health and Safety Act.

Work Experience

Trained hundreds of workers in government sponsored safety training. Developed policies and training for safety related reasons. Managed the training requirements for 17 JHSC at Vale. Have worked in heavy industrial, hard rock mining sector for 20 years.

Vale Inco

10/16/1989 - Present

Position: Safety Representative

Responsibilities: Responsible for the duties of JHSC co-chair duties under the OHSA laws and regulations. Ensure workplace inspections are completed and recommend rectifying actions. Follow-up with management on agreed to actions to be taken. Managed the duties of 3 teams of 15-20 persons. Investigate accidents and recommend preventative measures for future risks.

Accomplishments: Currently in Honors program for Labour Studies at Laurentian University. Have represented parties in Court Inquest proceedings to fatalities in a mine or mining plant. Recently elected to position of Chief Steward of Operations for over 3000 workers..

Education

Confederation Secondary School

09/04/1984 - 06/24/1988

Education Establishment: Confederation Secondary School

Education Degree: OSSGD

Skills

Good listener, communication skills well-above average, understanding of audience, hard working, loyal and dedicated.

Computer skills: Various used applications (word, excel, acrobat, windows, microsoft e-mail, etc.)

Languages: English- Spoken, written, read. French-as a second language-spoken, written, read

Additional Information

Certifications or licenses: WHSC Instructor Training FITT-Adult education training Certified Worker under OHSA among many other courses

Interests

I am involved in the community in various positions of coaching minor sport like hockey and soccer to playing them as well. I enjoy golfing and general exercising to stay fit and healthy.